4. OBJECTS

4.1 Objects of RSLWA

The objects of RSLWA are to:

- a. assist and care for serving and ex-serving Australian Defence Force personnel and their dependants who are sick, suffering from mental illness, elderly, homeless or otherwise in need of relief;
- b. support serving personnel of the Australian Defence Force at home and abroad and actively assist them in their transition to civilian life, especially if they are detrimentally affected by their Defence service;
- c. provide assistance to serving and ex-serving Australian Defence Force personnel and their dependants to secure compensation, benefits and assistance that they are eligible to receive under law;
- d. assist in the preservation of the memory, honour and records of those who have served, suffered and died for Australia; and
- e. do any act, matter or thing which is ancillary or incidental to carrying out the above Objects.

5. POWERS OF RSLWA

5.1 RSLWA has the legal capacity and powers of an Incorporated Association as set out in the Act, which must be exercised solely for the furthering of the Objects of RSLWA.

5.2 Sub-Branch

- a. By charter, establish and constitute Incorporated and Unincorporated Sub-Branches of RSLWA throughout WA;
- b. Suspend a Sub-Branch;
- c. Administer, conduct and maintain the affairs of a Sub-Branch;
- d. Wind up and dissolve a Sub-Branch;
- e. Revoke, withdraw or amend any charter granted to a Sub-Branch;

5.3 State Branch Tribunal

RSLWA shall establish a State Branch Tribunal consisting of no fewer than five Service or Life Members that shall hear the following matters referred to it by RSLWA:

- a. appeals on decisions of Sub-Branches, both disciplinary and administrative;
- b. disciplinary matters referred to it by RSLWA;
- c. appeals or hearings in relation to eligibility for memberships, transfers of membership, as set out in the Rules; and
- d. other such matters referred to it by the Board of Directors to deal with complaints, disputes and grievances from individuals arising within the jurisdiction of RSLWA.

- 5.4 a. Members of the State Branch Tribunal shall be appointed by the State Congress on the recommendation of the Board of Directors for a period of three years and may be reappointed for further periods of three years.
- b. The Board of Directors shall nominate the Chairman of the State Branch Tribunal for similar periods.

5.5 APPLICATION OF INCOME AND PROPERTY

The property and income of RSLWA must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects or purposes of RSLWA and no part of that property or income may be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, to any member of RSLWA, except in good faith in the promotion of the objects or purposes.

6. WINDING UP OF RSLWA

6.1 RSLWA shall not be diverted from its original purpose or its incorporation cancelled or wound up voluntarily unless three-fourths of the votes cast by Members entitled to vote of RSLWA so resolve by special resolution at a General Meeting of Members, either a State Congress or an Extraordinary General Meeting, convened for that purpose.

6.2 If, upon the winding up of RSLWA or cancellation of its incorporation, there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any assets whatsoever, the same must not be paid to or distributed among the Members or a member of the Board of Directors of RSLWA but must be transferred to RSLA or one or more institutions, funds or authorities which:

- a. has objects similar to RSLWA;
- b. is a Registered Public Benevolent Institution;
- c. is a Deductible Gift Recipient; and
- d. prohibits distribution of its income and property among its members and directors (or other controlling body) to an extent at least as great as is imposed on RSLWA.

6.3 If, upon the revocation of RSLWA's endorsement as a Deductible Gift Recipient, there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any gifts, Contributions or money received because of such gifts or Contributions, the same must not be paid to or distributed among the Members or a member of the Board of Directors of RSLWA, but must be transferred to RSLA or one or more institutions, funds or authorities which:

- a. has objects similar to RSLWA;
- b. is a Registered Public Benevolent Institution;
- c. is a Deductible Gift Recipient; and
- d. prohibits distribution of its income and property among its members and directors (or other controlling body) to an extent at least as great as is imposed on RSLWA.

6.4 The identity of the institutions, funds or authorities referred to in rules 6.2 and 6.3 must be determined by resolution of the members.

6.5 Where gifts to an institution, fund or authority are deductible only if, among other things, the conditions set out in the relevant table item in subdivision 30-B of the ITAA97 are satisfied, a transfer under this rule must be made in accordance with those conditions.

6.6 In this rule 6, the following definitions will apply:

Commission means the Commissioner of Taxation, a Second Commissioner of Taxation or a Deputy Commissioner of Taxation for the purposes of the ITAA97.

Contribution means:

- i. a contribution of money or property as described in item 7 of the table contained in section 30-15 of the ITAA97 in relation to a fundraising event; or
- ii. a contribution of money as described in item 8 of the table contained in section 30-15 of the ITAA97 in relation to a successful bidder at an auction that was a fundraising event, held for the RSLWA Objects.

Deductible Gift Recipient means an institution, fund, authority or any other entity that is endorsed as a deductible gift recipient by the Commissioner under Division 30 of the ITAA97 or is a specific listed deductible gift recipient under Division 30 of the ITAA97.

ITAA97 means the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

Registered Public Benevolent Institution has the meaning contained in section 995-1(1) of the ITAA97.

7. MEMBERSHIP

7.1 Membership shall consist of the following classes, namely:

- a. Service Members;
- b. Life Members;
- c. Honorary Members;
- d. Honorary Life Members; and
- e. Affiliates

7.2 The provisions of these Rules shall not disturb the continuity of membership of a person who was admitted to membership of the League (irrespective of the class of membership to which they had been admitted) prior to these Rules coming into force and effect.

Service Members

7.3 Any person who has served in the Australian Defence Force either as a Regular or a Reservist or any other person provided for in the By-Laws may be admitted as a Service Member.

7.4 A Service Member shall be entitled to attend as an observer at State or National Congress or RSLW Board Meeting at their own expense, but shall not be entitled to be heard nor vote nor shall they be entitled to receive notices.

Life Members

- 7.5 The State President may propose that a Service Member, who has given long, continued and outstanding service to the League, be granted Life Membership by the National Board.
- 7.6 Subject to the National By-Laws, RSLWA may propose that a Service Member, who has been a Service Member for at least 15 continuous years and has rendered not less than 10 years' outstanding service to the League be granted Life Membership by the National Board.
- 7.7 If, after a proposal has been made pursuant to the National Rules, the Service Member who is the subject of the proposal for Life Membership dies before the National Board considers the proposal, the National Board may still grant Life Membership to that person. Any badge and certificate will be given to the person's next of kin.
- 7.8 The rights, privileges and obligations of a Service Member elected as a Life Member shall not be disturbed by their election to that class, save and except that they shall not be liable to pay any annual subscription either to the League, RSLWA or a Sub-Branch, as the case may be.

Honorary Members

- 7.9 The National Executive and/or the State Board of Directors may award honorary membership to:
- a. members of the Australian Defence Force whilst on operational duty; and
 - b. such other persons for such period as it sees fit.
- 7.10 If an Honorary Member is a Service Member or Life Member at the time they are awarded honorary membership, their rights, privileges and obligations as a Service Member or Life Member shall, subject to Rule 7.15, not be disturbed by the award to him of honorary membership.
- 7.11 An Honorary Member may attend as an observer at any National Congress at their own expense but shall not be entitled to be heard, or vote or receive notices nor shall they be liable to pay any annual subscription or other sums to the League.

Honorary Life Members

- 7.12 The National Executive may award honorary life membership to:
- a. any member of the Royal Family; or
 - b. any representative of the Sovereign in the Commonwealth; or
 - c. any person who ordinarily resides in the Commonwealth and who has been awarded the Victoria Cross, the George Cross, the Cross of Valour or the Star of Courage; or
 - d. any person who is a citizen of any country forming part of the Commonwealth of Nations and who in the opinion of the National Executive has rendered long, continued and outstanding service to the said Commonwealth of Nations; or
 - e. any person who in the opinion of the National Executive has rendered outstanding service to the service or ex-service community of the country in which they ordinarily reside.

7.13 If an Honorary Life Member is a Service Member or Life Member at the time they are awarded honorary life membership, their rights, privileges and obligations as a Service Member or Life Member (as the case may be) shall, subject to Rule 7.18, not be disturbed by the award to him of honorary life membership.

7.14 An Honorary Life Member may attend as an observer at any National Congress but shall not be entitled to vote or receive notices nor shall they be liable to pay any annual subscriptions or other sums to the League.

Affiliates of Sub-Branches

7.15 RSLWA has accepted the introduction of Affiliates of Sub-Branches. An eligible person may apply to be admitted as an Affiliate of a Sub-Branch.

7.16 No person may be admitted as an Affiliate of a Sub-Branch if that person is eligible to be admitted as a Service Member.

7.17 The By-Laws make provision:

- a. as to those persons who are eligible to apply to be so admitted; and
- b. for all necessary rules of, and incident to, such persons.

Social Members of Sub-Branches

7.18 Persons not eligible to join the League may be admitted as Social Members at Sub-Branch level. Social Members may not hold an honorary office in any Sub-Branch, nor may they vote at any Sub-Branch meetings. However, they may be invited to speak at Sub-Branch meetings on matters of a purely social (entertainment) nature. Social Members are required to comply with the Constitution and By-Laws of RSLWA and are subject to the obligation and sanctions in the Code of Conduct.

7.19 The subscription for social membership is to be fixed, and payment retained, by the Sub-Branch.

Commencement of Membership

7.20 An applicant for membership of the Association as either a Service Member or Affiliate becomes a member of the Association under that class of membership when –

- (a) their application for membership is accepted by a Sub-Branch of the Association or by the Association (whichever is earlier); and
- (b) they pay any membership fees due to the Association.

7.21 Membership of the Association as a Life Member shall commence when the person is elected a life member by the National Executive.

7.22 Honorary Membership shall commence upon such an award being made by the National Executive or the State Board of Directors under Rule 7.11.

7.23 An Honorary Life Membership shall commence upon such an award being made by the National Executive.

Cessation of Membership

- 7.24 A person ceases to be a Member when any of the following takes place –
- a. for a Member who is an individual, the individual dies;
 - b. the person resigns from the Association by giving written notice to the Association.
 - c. the person is expelled from the Association.
 - d. the person fails to pay membership fees due to the Association on or before 30 April following the due date for payment.

Register of Members

- 7.25 A register of members is to be maintained as follows:
- a. The membership officer, or another person authorised by the committee, is responsible for the requirements imposed on the Association under section 53 of the Act to maintain the register of members and record in that register any change in the membership of the Association.
 - b. In addition to the matters referred to in section 53(2) of the Act, the register of members must include the class of membership (if applicable) to which each member belongs and the date on which each member becomes a member.
 - c. The register of members must be kept at RSLWA's place of business, or at another place determined by the Board of Directors.
 - d. A member who wishes to inspect the register of members must contact the membership officer to make the necessary arrangements.
 - e. If —
 - i. a member inspecting the register of members wishes to make a copy of, or take an extract from, the register under section 54(2) of the Act; or
 - ii. a member makes a written request under section 56(1) of the Act to be provided with a copy of the register of members, the committee may require the member to provide a statutory declaration setting out the purpose for which the copy or extract is required and declaring that the purpose is connected with the affairs of the Association.

8. GENERAL PROVISIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- 8.1 All Service and Life members shall be of equal status in the League.
- 8.2 All other members shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the provisions of the National Rules and National By-Laws.
- 8.3 For the purposes of these Rules, the National Executive shall have jurisdiction over all members but in addition, RSLWA shall have jurisdiction over a person who is also a member of RSLWA, or of a Sub-Branch, which is subject to the jurisdiction of RSLWA.

Associate Membership

- 8.4 A Service or Life Member who is also a member of a Sub-Branch shall not be eligible to be a member of another Sub-Branch but may apply to be admitted as an associate thereof. Such an application shall be lodged with the Secretary of that other Sub-Branch and upon their being admitted, they shall be known as an associate of that other Sub-Branch. The annual subscription payable by an associate to that other Sub-Branch shall be the annual subscription payable by a Service Member to a Sub-Branch less that proportion of each annual subscription referred to in By-Law 11.3.
- 8.5 A Service or Life Member who is also an associate, shall be entitled to hold office, vote and speak at a meeting of not more than one Sub-Branch.
- 8.6 A Service or Life Member to whom Rule 8.5 applies shall:
- a. elect in writing the Sub-Branch in which they wish to be eligible to hold office, vote and speak; and
 - b. deliver such election to all the Sub-Branches of which they are a member and associate;

and until they have complied with this Rule, they shall only be entitled to hold office, vote and speak at the Sub-Branch of which they are a member, and such election shall not be able to be revoked during the membership year in which it is made.

Australian Citizen

- 8.7 No person who is not an Australian citizen shall be admitted as a Service Member unless they have signed a declaration that they are prepared to swear or affirm (as the case may be) loyalty to the Nation and its Sovereign and that they will uphold the Constitution of the Commonwealth and the Constitution of The Returned & Services League of Australia Limited.
- 8.8 If an applicant for Service Membership is not an Australian citizen, then unless they prove to the satisfaction of the League that by making a declaration required by Rule 8.7 they would or would be likely to lose their citizenship, they shall make such a declaration, failing which, they shall not be admitted as a Service Member.
- 8.9 The By-Laws may make provision for terms and conditions of membership (including applications for and resignations from) not otherwise provided for in these Rules.
- 8.10 RSLWA is to maintain an "Unattached List of Members" and a "Miscellaneous List of Members" in accordance with the procedures set out in the By-Laws. In addition, the League may also maintain either or both of these.

Subscriptions

- 8.11 No person shall be deemed a member of RSLWA, or allowed to exercise the privileges of a member, unless they shall be a Life Member in accordance with the provision of Rule 7 or have paid their subscription for the current year.

Non Admittance

- 8.12 If a Sub-Branch considers an applicant for Service membership should not be admitted as a Service Member and a member of that Sub-Branch, it shall have no power or authority to reject the application but shall forward the application and all supporting documents, the subscription paid and its written reasons for failure to admit the applicant to membership, to RSLWA within 14 days of the receipt of the Application.

8.13 RSLWA may direct the Sub-Branch referred to in Rule 8.13 to admit the applicant as a Service Member if it is of the opinion they should be admitted, or shall reject the application if it is satisfied the applicant is not eligible.

Inspection of records and documents

8.14 A member who wants to inspect a record or document of the association (other than the register of members, which is covered by Rule 7.25) must contact RSLWA to make the necessary arrangements for the inspection.

8.15 The inspection must be free of charge.

8.16 The member may make a copy of a record or document (other than the register of names and addresses of the Board of Directors) but shall not remove the record or document.

8.17 A member may only inspect a document that records the minutes of a meeting of the Board of Directors if the Board of Directors has decided that minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors generally, or the minutes of a specific meeting of the Board of Directors, should be available for inspection by members. The member does not have a right to make a copy of or to remove the record or document.

8.18 The member must not use or disclose information in a record or document referred to in Rules 8.15 and 8.18 except for a purpose –

- a. that is directly connected with the affairs of the Association; or
- b. that is related to complying with a requirement of the Act.

Suspension or Expulsion of Member

8.19 The Board of Directors may by resolution suspend or expel a member of RSLWA.

9. FINANCIAL MATTERS

Subscriptions

9.1 A Service Member shall pay to RSLWA or a Sub-Branch (as the case may be) such annual subscription as is determined from time to time by State Congress on the recommendation of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors.

9.2 A Service Member whose name is included in the Unattached List of Members or in the Miscellaneous List of Members kept by RSLWA shall pay such annual subscription as may be determined from time to time by State Congress.

9.3 Each Sub-Branch shall pay to RSLWA such proportion of each annual subscription received by it as is determined by State Congress.

9.4 RSLWA shall pay to the National Headquarters of the League a proportion of each annual subscription received by it pursuant to By-Law 10 determined and payable in accordance with National By-Law 15. Such proportions are to be referred to as "capitation fees".

9.5 Annual subscriptions shall be payable in advance on January 1 in each calendar year.

9.6 If a Service Member shall fail to pay their annual subscription on or before April 30 following upon the date annual subscriptions becomes due and payable, they shall cease to be a Service Member, except as provided for in National By-Laws, which relates to Default in Payment of Subscription.

- 9.7 If the Australian Defence Force is engaged in a conflict, then any Service Member who is a member of that Force and is engaged in that conflict, shall for the period of their involvement in that conflict, be relieved from any liability to pay annual subscriptions either to the League, RSLWA or a Sub-Branch, as the case may be.

Accounts

9.8 Chief Financial Officer

- a. The CEO shall appoint a person to be the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as a paid employee on such remuneration, terms and conditions as they think fit.
- b. The CFO shall report to the CEO. The position will handle all the day-to-day accounting systems and procedures of RSLWA and attend meetings as required. The CFO will produce accounting documents and provide on-going advice as required.

9.9 Bank Accounts

- a. All moneys received on behalf of RSLWA shall be placed in an approved financial institution and vested in the name of RSLWA.
- b. All outwards payments shall be authorised by any two of the following, viz, the State President, State Vice President, CEO, CFO and such additional person or persons as the Board determines, to sign cheques or authorise electronic payments subject to the delegation policy in place.

9.10 Books of Account

- a. The Board of Directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to:
 - i. all sums of money received and expended by the League and the manner in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
 - ii. all sales and purchases of real and personal property by RSLWA; and
 - iii. the assets and liabilities of RSLWA.
- b. Such accounts shall be kept at the registered office of RSLWA, or subject to the Act, at such other place as the Board of Directors thinks fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of any member of the State Congress or Board of Directors at any reasonable time.
- c. The Board of Directors shall, from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Act, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the State Congress such income and expenditure accounts, balance sheets and reports as are required thereby.

9.11 Auditor

- a. The State Congress shall, at each Annual General Meeting, appoint one or more auditors for RSLWA for no more than a three-year term subject to an annual review by the Board of Directors.

- b. Any vacancy arising in the position of Auditor to RSLWA between Congresses shall be filled by the Board of Directors.
- c. The auditors appointed for RSLWA shall, after 31 December in each year and before the annual meeting of the State Congress, shall perform an independent audit of the RSLWA financial statements in accord with the Australian Accounting Standards Board's Auditing Standards and report to the Board of Directors and State Congress the results of their audit.
- d. The auditors shall make any additional reports they deem necessary or which may be required by the State Congress or the Board of Directors.

10. ORGANISATION OF RSLWA

- 10.1 RSLWA may establish within its jurisdiction such Sub-Branches as it may deem necessary or desirable and make Rules, not inconsistent with the National Rules or the National By-Laws, or these Rules and RSLWA By-Laws for the governance and control thereof. The Sub-Branches established by RSLWA shall be designated and known by name of the city or town, locality, establishment, organisation or group where, or in connection with which, they are formed and followed by the letters RSL.
- 10.2 RSLWA may appoint two Service or Life Members (one of whom shall be its President for the time being) or their elected representative to represent it at a particular National Congress or at all National Congresses.
- 10.3 RSLWA shall carry out and further the objects of the League and be bound by its standing policy. In addition, it shall promote that standing policy within its jurisdiction and shall have such further powers, functions and duties as are hereinafter set forth in these Rules and as may be set forth in the By-Laws or as are delegated to it by the National Executive. It shall comply with any lawful direction or lawful request of the National Executive.
